

Howard University's EELI Challenge Statement

1. An aging faculty has made changes in response to the challenges of 2020 slow. A strategy to incentivize them is needed.
2. At an institution where it is predicted that budgets will be flat for at least the next three years, strategies for implementing change in such a budgetary environment are needed.
3. Strategies for ensuring students learn the needed skills for the preparation described in 2020.
