

NATIONAL ACADEMY OF ENGINEERING

The CHAIRMAN'S CHALLENGE

NAE Chair Gordon R. England is challenging members to financially support the NAE.

"The NAE is more than an honor society. Membership carries with it a responsibility to serve – to make a difference to the nation, in the world."

–Gordon R. England

Support the NAE

Private contributions are an investment in the NAE and they enable us the flexibility to initiate timely, important activities that strengthen the engineering profession.

Your support also promotes engineering education and informs the public about the importance of engineering. Your gift, to any NAE fund, builds a stronger, more proactive NAE.

PURPOSE

- Inspire others to fund giving challenges.
- Encourage philanthropy among all members.
- Incentivize Section 1 members to give.
- Build a stronger more proactive NAE.

GUIDELINES

- The Challenge will match up to $100,000 in new gifts/pledges from Section 1 members.
- Corporate employee matching gifts are eligible.
- Contributions can support any NAE fund.
- Gifts/pledges must be received by the 2017 NAE Annual Meeting (October 9, 2017).

For additional information or to make a gift, please contact Radka Nebesky at 202.334.3417 or RNebesky@nae.edu.
