

Key Findings from Consensus Report on Sexual Harassment of Women

- Gender harassment is the most common form of sexual harassment
- There is extensive sexual harassment
- Sexual harassment undermines research integrity, reduces talent pool, and harms targets and bystanders
- Legal compliance is necessary but not sufficient to reduce harassment
- Changing climate and culture can prevent and effectively address sexual harassment

